

1793

The Louvre was opened as a museum

Nov 3, 1793

Stephen F. Austin born
Father of Texas

Jan 26, 1793 1912 Dates J-BK
(1754-1793) Louis XVI

King of France 1774-1792. Born at Versailles.
Incompetent ruler. France in chaos.
Reforms irritated nobles and people. Conditions became intolerable and Oct 1789 a Parisian mob marched upon Versailles and conducted the royal family to Paris. The Queen (Marie Antoinette) advised the unwise flight to Varennes, confirming rumors of negotiations with foreign powers. The Tuilleries stormed

(Aug 10, 1792)! the royal family and prison to the Temple! Louis XVI condemned to death and died under the guillotine
Jan. 21, 1793

1793

A completely automated grist mill was invented by American Oliver Evans in 1793. The mill performed all operations without human labor. The millers opposed it, and it would be many decades before Evans' idea was fully accepted. In 1805, Evans suggested using evaporation of ether for refrigeration.

And again we decide ahead of the time:

Sept. 18, 1793

Pres. Washington laid the cornerstone of the U.S. Capitol

Oct 1793 Marie Antoinette's execution Louis XVI's guillotined

Feb 25, 1793

The department heads of the U.S. government met with Pres. Washington at his home for the 1st Cabinet meeting on record.

Mar 2, 1793
18 1 1

Samuel was born to Sam & Elizabeth Pettor.

He worked on the farm & went to school when it was too cold to work.

His brother paddled him so he would go to work in a store.

Sam left his home and in dead of night he paddled across

The Tammes River. The Cherokee Indians
He went to live with the Cherokee Indians
His brother found him & wanted him to come home, but he remained. He learned their language (a most difficult one). It taught Accordingly he visited his mother. It taught clothes the Indian friends & ran up a bill that was 2 yrs old. so he returned to civilization

1793

In France, to change the Cal.
the national convention appointed Charles-Filbert Romme to take charge of reform.

Mathematicians were Joseph-Louis
Lagrange and Gaspard Monge.

Jan 9, 1793

Frenchman Jean Pierre Blanchard, using hot-air balloon, flew between Philadelphia and Woodbury, N. J.

Jan 21, 1793

During the French Revolution, King Louis XVI, condemned for treason, was executed on the guillotine

Oct. 16, 1793

During the French Revolution,
Queen Marie Antoinette was beheaded.

Nov. 24, 1793

Nov 24, 1793 → Dec 31, 1805

French Revolutionary Cal

Divided into 12 mos (30 days)

Vendémiaire (vintage), Brumaire (fog)

Fumaire (smoke), Nivôse (snow)

Pleurvôse (rain), Ventôse (~~heat~~)

Germinal (seed); Floréal (blossom)

Prairial (pasture) Messidor (harvest)

Thermidor or Fervidor (heat) Fructidor (fruit): the remaining 5 days (none)

colleagues were past days. Critics, sources, Dahmer, Berman, and Burrows

keep you (hard day was Persepolis Day) there was no week. Months divided into decades. Every 10th day was a day of Rest.

napoleon abolished it Jan 1, 1806 was forgotten. Again.

Oct. 28, 1793

Eli Whitney applied for a patent for his Cotton gin.

The patent was granted the following March.

Jan 21, 1793

King Louis XVI of France
was executed.

9 JAN 1793

1ST BALLOON

(U.S.) FLIGHT

[illegible]

Mar 2, 1793

Sam Houston was born in Rockridge County, Virginia

June 1793

Girondists

members of moderate republican Second Party during French Revolution, 1791-1793.

Jacobin extremists suppressed
Girondists June 1793

Jan. 9, 1793

First free flight in America
Gathered near what is now Independence Sq. in Philadelphia, spectators - including Pres. George Washington - paid 5⁰⁰/ticket to watch the 1st manned balloon in North America
French balloonist Pierre-François Blanchard sailed over the Delaware R.
and landed in New Jersey.

Nov 24, 1793

It lasted till Dec 8, 1799

The French revolution was official on Nov 24, 1793, the day the entire new Revolutionary
Cal. was put into effect.
The day was divided into 10 hours, and ea. hr into 100 decimal minutes and ea min into 100 decimal seconds.

1793

Farmers' Almanac

First published 1793

containing general purpose information from colonial times to the present;

Later called the "Old Farmer's Almanac"

Mar 2, 1793

the first Pres of the Republic of Texas, Sam Houston, was born near Lexington, Virginia

Feb 25, 1793

George Washington Convened the first Cabinet meeting on record - at his home.

Jan 21, 1793

King Louis XVI of France
was executed.